2000 character(s) maximum

During my mobility, I engaged in structured job shadowing, observing a variety of teaching methodologies across different subjects at the host school. This was complemented by professional dialogues with mentors and staff, allowing for a deep dive into pedagogical practices. These exchanges provided a valuable platform to compare the Italian and Finnish school systems, critically evaluating the strengths of both through the lens of our distinct cultural contexts and our shared European educational values.

- * 3.2 What did you learn as a result of participating in your mobility activity? Please try to be specific and mention concrete skills that you have improved and knowledge that you have gained.

Participating in this mobility significantly enhanced both my linguistic and pedagogical competencies.

Firstly, using English as a vehicular language in a professional environment, improved my fluency and technical vocabulary, which is essential for the effective implementation of CLIL methodology.

Secondly, I gained deep insights into the Finnish approach to the use of technology. I observed how digital tools are core instruments for inclusion and personalization. Specifically, I learned how technology can be used to adapt learning materials to different student needs, ensuring that pupils with diverse learning styles can access the curriculum more effectively. This experience has provided me with practical strategies to foster a more student-centered and adjustable learning environment.

I am extremely satisfied with this mobility experience. While I have always felt a strong sense of European identity, this project deepened that connection significantly. Having the opportunity to build professional relationships and genuine friendships with colleagues from a culturally distinct country like Finland, highlighted the strength of our union.

It became clear to me that despite our geographical distances and cultural nuances, we are truly 'united in diversity'. This experience reinforced my belief that our shared European values are the strongest foundation for the future of education. I return to Italy not just with new skills, but with a renewed commitment to fostering an European dimension within my community, both at school and in wider sense.
